7 Investment revenues and expenses (attribution to policyholders) (E.04.01)

This template is only for ESCB purposes and requested on a quarterly basis.

This template contains information required for statistical purposes on the geographical breakdown of life technical provisions related to investment revenues and investment expenses attributed to policyholders and to all (life and non-life) investment revenues and investment expenses not attributed to policyholders. The template should be reported year-to-date.

Investment revenues only relate to income (such as dividends, rents, interest income) and not to holding gains and losses (realised and unrealised).

Investment expenses relate to expenses as mentioned in S.29.02 C0010/R0050.

The information on investment revenues and expenses attributed to policyholders are part of life TPs.

If cross-border business exists, all countries reported in the last S.12.02 submission shall be reported. As in S.12.02, the home country must always be reported, while countries outside the materiality threshold should be reported aggregated in 'other–EEA' or 'other–non EEA'. Countries that are inside the materiality threshold in S.12.02 are also to be reported country-by-country in template E.04.01.

The template must always be reported, even if cross-border business does not exist.

Investment revenues attributed to policyholders should include any income earned from the investment of premiums that policyholders receive and that effect the TP in the reporting period. This applies to unit-/index-linked and non-unit-/index-linked contracts.

Investment expenses attributed to policyholders to be reported in EC0040 and EC0050 relate to costs (as mentioned in S.29.02) for the policyholder in the reporting period that effects TP in the reporting period.

Under the assumption that non-life products with profit participation do not exist, the following holds:

- Investment revenues of S.29.02.01 C0010 R0040 equals the sum of all rows of E.04.01 EC0020, EC0030 and EC0060
- Investment expenses of S.29.02.01 C0010 R0050 equals the sum of all rows in E.04.01 EC0040, EC0050 and EC0070
